Checklist for Skills Recognition Eligibility

Overview

This form may be used as a tool to determine if you are eligible to apply for Skills Recognition in SIT30816 Certificate III in Commercial Cookery. This qualification is nationally recognised in Australia. The skills and knowledge gained from achievement of this qualification are highly sought after in Australia. In fact, cooks are listed on some of the Skills Needs List.

Subject to meeting DIAC Requirements, students may be eligible for The Temporary Business (Long Stay) Subclass 457 visa. This is an employer sponsored work visa designed to allow highly skilled foreign workers to work in Australia for up to 4 years. Please go to <http://www.immi.gov.au/Visas/Pages/457.aspx>

An Immigration Consultant such as Immigration Western Sydney - immigrationws.com.au, may be able to assist you with this process.

Fees are applicable for all the above services and may be obtained from the organisations listed above. Austrain Academy fees will be confirmed prior to the commencement of the Skills Recognition process and are outlined in the Recognition Assessment Application Form.
