

Thank you for enquiring about the SITHFAB002 Provide responsible service of alcohol (RSA) training by correspondence. Austrain Academy is approved by Liquor and Gaming NSW to provide this course in NSW. The RSA Course is a minimum requirement for all staff involved in the sale, supply service or promotion of alcohol. For further information about RSA requirements in States and Territories other than NSW please contact the relevant state authority. All RSA Correspondence courses WILL CLOSE FRIDAY 8TH JUNE 2018. You MUST return your completed course materials to our office by this date. No certificates or refunds will be offered after this date.*

Please Note: If you already hold a valid competency card that is not more than 28 days past expiry, Liquor & Gaming NSW will contact you by email and/or SMS about how to renew your card. Renewal and online refresher training is only available via the links sent by Liquor & Gaming NSW when your renewal period opens. You may still enrol in this course if you hold a valid competency card for RSA, but will be required to sign a declaration that you understand your competency card endorsement will not be renewed. Also, if this course is an additional competency endorsement, all current competencies expire on the same day, five years after the first competency course was completed.

After you have enrolled, this course may be completed by either of the following methods:

- providing your email address for Austrain Academy to send you PDF versions of the course materials and completing and returning them via email or post.

OR

- we can post the materials to you for completion and you can return them via post.

To complete this course via correspondence requires the following:

- completion of the enrolment form and return to our office

- the Admissions Officer or Student Services Office at any Australian university or TAFE college
- the official records department of the institution that originally issued the document(s)

Procedure

The original document must be viewed by the certifying officer and the officer must personally copy the original document and verify it by doing the following:

- Use a stamp or write by hand on the copy “This is to Certify that this is a True Copy of the Original “on each page of the document
- Sign the statement
- Affix the official stamp or seal of the verifier's organisation on the copy, if the organisation has such a stamp, and print the following details:
 - Name and business address
 - Contact telephone number
 - Profession or occupational group (as listed previous page)
 - Date verified
- If the certifying officer is a Justice of the Peace the certifying officer must list the registration number and Australian state/territory of registration

Documents not certified or not certified correctly:

These are examples of documents that we can't accept because they haven't been certified properly.

- documents that have been verified by an immediate relative or a person residing at the same address as the applicant.
- documents that are just photocopies without certification
- documents that are certified copies of copies. It must be clear that the certifying authority/person has sighted the original document.
- documents that have not been correctly verified
- documents verified by a Justice of the Peace without a registration number

Austrain Academy accepts scanned documents submitted online in the following circumstances:

- All of your supporting documents must be true and complete records.
- You should be prepared to provide original documents or original certified copies of supporting documents upon request at any time.
- Checking of supporting documents may involve contacting the original issuing authority, or relevant tertiary admissions centre, educational or other relevant organisation or individual, whether in Australia or overseas, to verify documents.
- A failure to provide documents on request, or the discovery of either fraudulent documents or a misrepresentation of true circumstances in association with your application, may lead to the rejection of your application or the cancellation of your enrolment.

If you have any further questions please do not hesitate to contact us on 1300 20 40 20.

Kind Regards,
Austrain Academy
